Review of Sessions

Who is BIO & Navigating Campus
Taught you how to take advantage of everything the Berkeley International Office has to offer, as well as important offices and resources in the community.

Health & Wellness
Introduced you to tips and resources that can help you to stay healthy, both mentally and physically.

Team Builders
Helped to make connections with other international students on campus through fun team building activities.

Student Q&A
Heard from current students as they shared their experience at UC Berkeley and tips/advice to help you towards a successful first semester.

Immigration Essentials
Reminded you of important immigration regulations throughout the entirety of your time here at Cal.
Going Forth into GBO
Planning and Prioritizing
The new online orientation programs that will occur in August prior to the start of classes will include a combination of live and recorded content so that all students — whether in Berkeley or anywhere in the world — can participate. The Golden Bear Orientation program will include opportunities to participate in small groups where you’ll enjoy connecting with fellow students and your Orientation Leader, with lots of opportunities to celebrate being a new Golden Bear.
Individualized Schedules

- August 21: Academics including Convocation and College Welcome (10 a.m.–10 p.m.)
- August 22: Co-Curricular – including Campus Resource Fair, Campus Tours, and Health & Wellness programming (9 a.m.–10 p.m.)
- August 23: Co-Curricular Part 2 (9 a.m.–10 p.m.)
- August 24: Academics Part 2 – getting connected with your college (9 a.m.–10 p.m.)
- August 25: Conference Day – social and community building opportunities to connect with campus departments on a more personalized basis (9 a.m.–6 p.m.)
If you need help during GBO, email nss@berkeley.edu with any questions you have.
